The above entitled cause having been previously tried before the above entitled Court on May 17, 1920, judgment having been previously entered on October 5, 1920, appeal having been taken to the Supreme Court of the State of California, said Supreme Court having reversed said Judgment on November 3, 1922 and having ordered said cause back to this Court for a new trial; Ida L. Owens and Mabel E. Perry, executrix of the Estate of J. F. Owens, deceased, T. E. Perry and Mabel E. Perry, and H. A. Fleming and W. S. Fleming having, with the approval of this Court, filed complaints in intervention in said cause; said cause having been referred to the Division of Water Resources of the Department of Public Works, State of California to investigate, determine and report upon all the physical facts involved and the duty of water required for the various uses involved and seasonably to report to the Court thereon, said reference having been made by an order of this Court, dated May 17, 1932, under authority of law as conferred by Section 24 of the Water Commission Act of the State of California, Statutes of 1913, Chapter 586, as amended; said Division of Water Resources having made its investigation and having announced its report in the form of a draft; notice of said draft and a copy thereof having been mailed by said referee to the parties or their attorneys; plaintiff Charles M. Oliver and intervenors, George H. Owens and Ethyl D. Cundiff having filed objections to said draft of report and the time for filing objections thereto having thereafter expired; due consideration having been given by said referee to said objections so filed; said referee having filed its report herein including three hydrographic reports and a map showing the entire area involved in said cause; said referee having given notice by mail of the filing of its report to the parties or their attorneys and the time for filing exceptions thereto having thereafter expired; exceptions to said report of referee having thereafter been filed by plaintiff Charles M. Oliver; said exceptions having, for good cause shown, been considered by this Court; said cause came on regularly for re-trial before this Court sitting without a jury, a trial by jury having been duly waived, on the 15th day of November, 1937, and was duly and regularly continued to April 11, 1938 for further hearing and trial; Fontaine Johnson and Herbert P. Welch appearing as counsel for plaintiff Charles M. Oliver; Carr and Kennedy and Charles Lederer appearing as counsel for defendants H. M. Fleming, Morris Dick, Sarah M. Koller, Rhesa Dick, Grover C. Dick, Thomas M. Dick, and Mrs. John Dick Smith and intervenors H. A. Fleming and W. S. Fleming; C. S. Baldwin appearing as counsel for intervenors George H. Owens, Ethyl D. Cundiff, Thomas E. Perry and Mabel E. Perry; J. S. Henderson appearing as counsel for defendant Charley C. Larkin; the Court having heretofore made and entered orders substituting parties herein as follows: (a) H. M. Fleming for defendant Isaac Robnett, (b) defendant Charley C. Larkin for defendant Ellen Larkin, (c) George H. Owens and Ethyl D. Cundiff for intervenors Ida L. Owens and Mabel E. Perry, executrix of the Estate of J. F. Owens, deceased, (d) Grover C. Dick, Annie Rice, Thomas M. Dick, Morris Dick, John D. Dick, Rhessa E. Dick, and Sadie M. Keller for defendant Ameria C. Dick, and (e) Mrs. John Dick Smith for defendant John D. Dick; it appearing to the Court that Sadie M. Keller and Sarah M. Keller are one and the same person and that defendant Annie Rice has no interest in any water right from Cottonwood Creek and has no interest in any of the lands involved in said cause; and evidence both oral and documentary having been introduced, the evidence having been closed, the cause having been submitted and the Court having made and filed herein its findings of fact and conclusions of law, now therefore in accordance with said findings of fact and conclusions of law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. There is in said Modoc County a natural stream of water known as and called "Cottonwood Creek", which said stream arises on the western slope of the Warner Range of Mountains in the northerly portion of said county, and flows thence in a general westerly direction into Goose Lake, and said stream so flows between well defined banks in a well defined channel to, upon, and across the lands of defendant Charley C. Larkin, thence to, upon, and across that portion of the lands of defendant H. M. Fleming hereinafter designated as the Riparian Ranch, thence to, upon, and across the lands of plaintiff Charles M. Oliver and that portion of the lands of intervenors George H. Owens and Ethyl D. Cundiff hereinafter designated as the Riparian Tract, all of said lands being hereinafter described in paragraph 2; and said stream, in its natural channel, flows north of all other lands involved in said cause as hereinafter described in said paragraph 2.

2. The party plaintiff, parties defendant and intervening parties in said cause are the owners of the lands described in their respective pleadings, and as amended and pleaded by them; the respective parties are the owners of the acreages and of all the lands embraced in the legal subdivisions hereinafter set forth in this paragraph under their respective names; and that said lands and acreages are depicted on the map herein referred to as the "Division of Water Resources Map", which map was prepared by said referee in this cause from its surveys made in 1932, and is entitled, "Cottonwood Creek Showing Diversion Systems and Irrigated Lands", and is dated 1932, which map has been filed in said cause, and by this reference thereto, is made part and parcel of this decree with like effect as if incorporated herein. The description of the lands irrigated from said Cottonwood Creek and the respective owners thereof are as follows:

11. The amounts of water that the parties hereto are found entitled to divert from Cottonwood Creek as hereinbefore set forth in paragraphs 4 to 9, inclusive, are sufficient and adequate to properly supply the respective requirements of said parties for use upon their respective acreages for said purposes, and are all the waters reasonably necessary therefor.

12. Whenever the flow of Cottonwood Creek has diminished to such a stage that due to channel losses or conveyance losses any of the allotments of water therefrom, or prorations thereof, as above set forth in paragraphs 4 to 9, inclusive, cannot be delivered to the specified places of use through the ditches designated as the means of diversion in said paragraphs 4 to 9, inclusive, or through any improved method of conveyance then in use, then the owner or owners of such an allotment or allotments shall not be entitled to divert any water from said creek at such times and the remaining parties who are entitled to divert from said creek shall be entitled at such times to divert such an allotment or allotments in accordance with the order of their respective priorities as above set forth in said paragraphs 4 to 9, inclusive.

13. The costs of suit herein shall be apportioned among the various parties to the action in accordance with the stipulation at the time of trial as to the manner of apportionment thereof.

14. That each and every party to this action, his or her agents, successors, grantees and assigns, be and they are hereby perpetually enjoined and restrained from doing anything in violation of the terms or provisions of this decree, or from diverting any water from said Cottonwood Creek at any time in violation of the terms hereof, or from diverting any of such water at any time in excess of a quantity of water reasonably necessary for and being put to beneficial use, or from doing anything, directly or indirectly, that will obstruct or interfere with any right of another in this decree adjudged and determined.

15. That action against Annie Rice be and is hereby dismissed.

16. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Court retains continuing jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter of this action for the purpose of enforcing its judgments, orders and decrees.
